

CHED REGION VIII
2A/F SDC 1 Building, National Highway
Brgy. 77 Marasbaras, Tacloban City
(053) 325-8579 / chedro8@ched.gov.ph

News Brief

Himangraw

HIMANGRAW IN WARAY-WARAY DIALECT MEANS CONVERSATION

With the leadership of its Regional Director, Dr. Maura Consolacion D. Cristobal, CHEDRO VIII facilitates the election of officers of the Eastern Visayas Association of Higher Education Institutions (EVAHEI).

EVAHEI elects officers

On February 17, the Eastern Visayas Association of Higher Education Institutions (EVAHEI), elected its first set of officers at the University of the Philippines Visayas—Tacloban College. The following were elected into office:

PRESIDENT: Asian Development Foundation College represented by Dr. Edward Y. Chua, College President

VICE-PRESIDENT (Samar Cluster):

Samar College represented by Mr. Rhett Caesar L. Piczon, College President

VICE-PRESIDENT (Leyte Cluster):

Saint Paul School of Business and Law represented by Mr. Erwin Vincent G. Alcala, College President

SECRETARY: University of the Philippine Visayas—Tacloban College represented by Dr. Anita G. Cular, College Dean

TREASURER: Western Leyte College of Ormoc represented by Mr. Emmanuel A. Fiel, College President

AUDITOR: St. Scholastica's College Tacloban represented by Sr. Julia C. Yap, OSB, College President

PIO: St. Mary's College of Borongan, Sr. Ma. Felicisima L. Cruz, RVM, College Directress

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

1. Saint Joseph College represented by Mr. Crispin B. Arong, College Executive Vice President

2. Southern Leyte State University represented by Dr. Valerion B. Cabalo, University Vice President for Administration and Finance

3. Eastern Samar State University represented by Mrs. Evelyn Obina, University Finance Management Director

4. Franciscan College of Immaculate Conception represented by Dr. Maria Victoria A. Gonzaga, Graduate School Dean

5. Northern Samar Colleges represented by Ms. Leah M. Mangada, College President

6. ACLC Tacloban College to be represented by Ms. Raquel Cecilia S. Chua, School Director

7. Holy Infant College to be represented by Sr. John Mary P. Fornillos, RSM, College President

8. Samar State University represented by Mr. Redentor S. Palencia, Executive Assistant III.

The newly elected officers will again meet for the refinement of the organization's By Laws.